No changes to OCPA executive members

LONDON, ON – It's business as usual for Ontario Corn Producers' Association (OCPA).

At its inaugural board meeting this morning the Board of Directors opted to re-elect all executive positions to maintain status quo until the transition to Grain Farmers of Ontario (GFO).

"As we head into a merger with our colleagues in the organizations representing soybean and wheat producers the Board opted to continue with the same leadership until the transition is complete by our target date of Fall 2009," says Dale Mountjoy, President of OCPA.

OCPA welcomes its existing executive board members back to the helm.

- Dale Mountjoy, President
- Don Kenny, First-Vice president, Grain Trade and Market Development Committee Chair
- Jeff Davis, Safety Nets Chair
- Lloyd Crowe, Environment, Technology and Research Committee Chair
- Doug Eadie, Past President

OCPA will undergo a merger with Ontario Soybean Growers (OSG) and Ontario Wheat Producers' Marketing Board (OWPMB) with a target date of Fall 2009.
